We've invited everybody to our big double wedding! I think the town will be empty that day. We're having it in a huge marquee on the grounds of Dad's estate. I hope the weather stays fine so we can go in and out.

Maddy and Roscoe are going to St Lucia for their honeymoon. Mike is taking me to Australia to see the country properly, we're staying clear of his family though, only a couple of nights with them I like them but they wear me out, especially Selina, she's full-on!

My mum is 50! She looks so good you'd never believe it. My brother Pearce announced his engagement at the party. I don't think my parents were best pleased. They don't really approve of his girlfriend. I feel a bit sorry for Pearce, I mean he must really love XiaLinn... they have a right to be happy.
