Mike is 40, but he's forbidden me to tell anyone or make any kind of fuss! I made a cake with the kids and we managed to get 40 candles on it! I think that was enough, I know he was chuffed really, even though we nearly burned down the living room when it was lit!

I don't know what possessed us, we let Mike's step-sister, Shelby come and stay with us. Sian had already kicked her out and Shelby wouldn't say why. She always seemed a nice kid when we knew her before, but she's grown into... well, it'd be rude to say. But let's just say, she likes herself way too much, is far too casual with men and uses dreadful language even in front of the kids... I want her out of my house.

We're going to Carlene and Gerry's wedding. She's an old friend of Maddy's and I did some treatments for her at 'Aromatherapy', when I worked there. I love romantic weddings, they make me cry like a baby! Carlene's had a rough ride, I hope it works out this time

There was a charity ball at Baldornie Castle at Christmas. We took our family. Shelby appeared, making a huge scene. It was so embarrassing, she may look older but she acts like a spoiled little child and has no manners or sense.
