

Lara

Hi I'm Lara.

I work as a nanny looking after 4 children - it's really hard work but great fun! I've just moved in with my boyfriend, Harrison, we've been going out together since we were at school. Now he's looking to set his dad up with someone... have you spotted any candidates in the village? We've guessed who he's got his eye on but we think she's a bit out of his league - oh sorry I can't tell you who it is...work it out for yourself!!

I love playing sports and keeping fit in my spare time - although running after my young charges does the trick pretty well!!

Thanks for looking in - Lots of Love,
Lara XXXXX
