

Rab

Hello I'm Rab Taylor.

I work as a prison officer - it's a tough job but I've done for many years and I find it can also be very rewarding.

My Wife and I enjoy curling with the local team and we have won several important county matches. We also like to walk, work in the garden and we attend the local church regularly.

Thanks for dropping by and behave yourself...I don't want to meet you in my professional capacity!
