

HARRISON

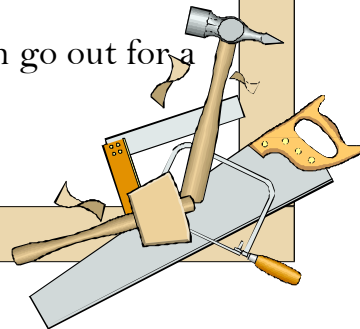

Hi I' m Harrison.

I work with my dad as a joiner, we're really busy right now so if your here because want a job done you'll have to add your name to the list!

I've just moved into a new flat with my girlfriend, Lara. That should please my dad cause he says I take up far too much room with all my junk but I think he'll miss me really!

Thanks for dropping by - maybe we can go out for a pint one day!

See you around! XX
